"PBG and AIPA RULEMAKING AND PATENT EXAMINATION GUIDELINES"

Training and Implementation Guide (March 2001)

The Training and Implementation Guide provides a compilation of recent rulemaking materials and published guidelines concerning patent examination policy and procedure. The rulemaking materials include both the Patent Business Goals (PBG) - Final Rule and the rules codifying the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999, (AIPA). The Guide is designed for use by all patent professionals.

The Guide can be purchased in a shrinkwrapped paper version or on a CD-ROM. Purchasers will have to supply their own 3-ring notebook binder. Also, the guide can be downloaded at no cost from the USPTO's Web site at www.uspto.gov

Privacy Act Statement

The Privacy Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-579) requires that you be given certain information in connection with your order for rulemaking materials and published guidelines concerning patent examination policy and procedure. Accordingly, pursuant to the requirements of the Act, please be advised that: (1) the authority for the collection of this information is 35 U.S.C. §§ 10 and 41 and 37 CFR 1.2 and 1.23; (2) providing the requested information is strictly voluntary; and (3) the information that you provide will be used by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office to fulfill your order and to ensure that it is shipped to the correct address. Information collected from you concerning your deposit account or credit card is used to ensure that the appropriate fee amount is charged to the appropriate account. If you do not furnish the requested information, the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office may not be able to fulfill your order or charge the appropriate fee to the correct account.

The information provided by you on this order form will be subject to the routine uses listed below. These routine uses also apply to the information collected in respect to the deposit account and the credit card.

- (1) The information on this form will be treated confidentially to the extent allowed under the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552) and the Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. 552(a)). Records from this system of records may be disclosed to the Department of Justice to determine whether disclosure of these records is required by the Freedom of Information Act.
- (2) A record from this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, in the course of presenting evidence to a court, magistrate, or administrative tribunal, including disclosures to opposing counsel in the course of settlement negotiations.
- (3) A record in this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to a Member of Congress submitting a request involving an individual when the individual has requested assistance from the Member with respect to the subject matter of the record.
- (4) A record in this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to a contractor of the Agency having need of the information in order to perform the contract. Recipients of this information shall be required to comply with the requirements of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(m).
- (5) A record from this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, to the Administrator, General Services, or his designee, during an inspection of records conducted by GSA as part of that agency's responsibility to recommend improvements in records management practices and programs, under authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906. Such disclosure shall be made in accordance with the GSA regulations governing inspection of records for this purpose, and any other relevant (i.e., GSA or Commerce) directive. Such disclosure shall not be used to make determinations about individuals.
